

Jio MAMI MUMBAI FILM FESTIVAL 2023

MEDIA CODE OF CONDUCT

Jio MAMI Mumbai Film Festival 2023 extends a warm invitation to members of the Press to cover the festival and events associated with it, which we believe are of significant interest to a diverse range of audiences. We kindly request that the press representatives adhere to the Jio MAMI Code of Conduct when interacting with our team, audiences, filmmakers, partners, vendors, volunteers or any individual associated with the film festival and the events they are covering. As we collaborate to ensure comprehensive coverage of one of the biggest film festivals in India, we expect media professionals to maintain the utmost levels of professionalism and ethical conduct that are customary in the field of journalism, including but not limited to accuracy, respectful interpersonal interactions, and transparent communication.

PRESS ACCREDITATION

The Press accreditation is intended for professionals working in and as Print media, Electronic Media, Digital Media, Television, Radio, Influencer, Paparazzi, Photojournalist, PR agency, Film critic, and Film Journalists.

The Press accreditation provides access to all the official film screenings, Brand Marketplace, Press Conferences and Press Center. All accreditation requests are subject to approval by the festival media team.

Each applicant may request a single accreditation indicating only one category of activity. The accreditation is personal and non-transferable. Jio MAMI Mumbai Film Festival 2023 does not deliver multiple accreditations for one journalist covering more than one media company or who covers several positions.

If you are representing a media company please remember to upload an official letter on company letterhead, signed and stamped by the editor-in-chief or director assigning you to cover the festival. The letter has to specify as many details as possible about your organization and expected coverage.

Accreditations will be issued on a limited basis, therefore the application itself neither constitutes nor guarantees an accreditation. Jio MAMI Mumbai Film Festival 2023 will confirm its acceptance of the accreditation request by email.

Jio MAMI MUMBAI FILM FESTIVAL 2023

The issuance of an accreditation implies the participant's full acceptance and compliance to Jio MAMI Mumbai Film Festival 2023 Regulations and Code of Conduct. Any violation could lead to its withdrawal.

Press accreditation is entirely up to the discretion of the festival media team. Decisions are final and cannot be appealed.
